

CRIMSON

GOSHEN PUBLIC LIBRARY
GOSHEN, INDIANA

These small keys have unlocked the door to friendship, knowledge, success, and happiness; and to the future. There are many keys — door keys, locker keys, car keys, honor keys. We have chosen these ordinary, common keys as symbolic of all the keys to G.H.S. to guide you through the 1953 Crimson.

Yea! Goshen!

GOSHEN PUBLIC LIBRARY
GOSHEN, INDIANA

Fate has led our footsteps through these portals . . . we, the class of 1953, have ambled, roved, strolled, yes, even strutted about the campus of Goshen High School . . . as we retrace our footsteps, in future years we will all remember . . .

dedication

Mrs. Robert Garwood

We, the class of "53", dedicate this book to Mrs. Robert Garwood and Mr. Charles Hart, who have guided, encouraged, and inspired us during our high school years. We will long remember their willingness to work with us.

The class of "53" also wishes to extend appreciation to Miss Kyler and Mr. Gerig, who led us through our freshman year, and to Mr. Owings for his guidance during our sophomore year.

Mr. Charles Hart

and what, sir, do you think?

"I'ma not know just, whata to say,
I'ma getta so nervous when I'ma talka this way.
You aska me what I'ma think, I see
When I'ma looka at da class of '53'.

I'ma see all de kiddies whena they laugh anda they shout,
Ina the class rooms and halls, ina the inside or out.
But mostly I'ma lika de games and the sports,
There'sa basketball, feeta-ball, games of all sorts.

Leetle Pug, he'sa runna all over de field
Lika dat fella Mercury, he'sa winged heeled.
Anda sturdy anda strong, dat Beachy he blocks
I'ma think he'sa gotta cast iron socks.

Whena they shoota them balls, they "whoosha"
right through;

Shank, he'sa lad dat knowsa what to do.
I'ma lika dat Forgatsch, he'sa pretty fast boy.
He'sa weave in and outa like da wounda-up-toy.

Yes, I'ma lika dat class, it'sa gotta good stuff,
The feeta-ball, basketball, ita getsa rough;
But I'ma lika dose lads, so you canna see,
I'ma lika da whole class of lifaty three."

"But, Monsieur, such a question, eet's not hard to say,

Een fact, I shall tell you, zat ees, eef I may.
Zee boys and zee girls, zay are to me,
Zee sparkling highlights of zis class, '53.

Oh, to me, eet ees dances and parties so gay
Zay stand out like jewels een a brilliant array.
Zay capture zee thought, zee mind is awl
Eet ees a Utopia, for each boy zere's a girl.

Zee Senior dances een zee Chamberlain gym
Zee music ees sweet, for each her zere's a him.
Zere ees a piece, "Hot Toddy" eet's named
To eet, couples whirl and romances are flamed.

Zee floor shows, zee, how you say, sessions of pep?
Zay show to zee public zis class ees een step.
Zee plays bring success, zay bring money, too,
Zay show what zis class really can do.

Collect zee papers, sell zee book covers
Zee thought of a boat trip; around them it hovers,
What do I theenk of zis class '53'?
Zere's but one thing to say "Monsieur zat is "Oui."

"Oh, I say, old man, it's not hard at all,
To discuss this class, it's rather a ball,
The students, ah yes, an outstanding group
Such vim and vigor as to classes they troup.

The fact that impresses me really, you know,
Is the group's intellect, outstanding—quite so.
In classes they study, oh, a few pranks are played.
All seem to expect that, though tempers are frayed.

Shakespeare and his cronies take the limelight
King Arthur's brave knights are a bit of all right.
Miss Zook and her Thespians, a jolly fine lot Quoting from Shakespeare, Macbeth and Hamlet.

I say, old man, the question arises
For the uncommonest jest do they ever give prizes.
In Prof. Yoder's class an odd thing occurred
Robert Brinklow made believe he was a bird.

Ah yes, my good friend, it's easy to say
This class is what you might call "okay"
A problem? Not at all for you may readily see
I'm awfully fond of this class, "53."

* * *

"I thank you, dear sirs, for being so kind
As to answer the question I had in mind,
The answers you've given are pleasing
On this topic the class of '53'."

the goshen board of school trustees

The Goshen Board of School Trustees has the responsibility for making decisions governing all phases of the school system which includes such areas as general administration, instruction, operation, maintenance, debt service, and capital outlay. Some of the more important policies formulated by the Board of School Trustees relate to such matters as the construction of new school buildings, the remodeling of old school buildings, salary schedules, rental of school buildings, purchase of supplies and equipment, the selection and work of school personnel, reporting pupil progress, and school city insurance. The board determines its policies after careful consideration of available factual information and recommendations which are provided by the Superintendent of Schools, School Principals, and Staff Committees.

The Board of School Trustees meets in the office of the Superintendent of Schools on the first and third Monday of each month. Five Goshen citizens appointed by the City Council, comprise this board. The President, Mr. Bernard J. Gill, is co-owner of Gill-Parsons Wholesale Candy Company. Mrs. E. L. Hay, the Treasurer of the board, is a housewife, a former teacher, and an active Goshen club woman. Mr. R. W. Kintigh, Secretary of the board, is Vice President and Sales Manager of the Barler Metal Products Company. The other two board members are Mr. Richard Bigler, Indiana Representative for Goshen Rubber Company, and Mr. John U. Hawks, Sales Representative for Western Rubber Company.

The members of the Goshen Board of School Trustees have the responsibility for providing an outstanding school system for the boys and girls of our community. They give a great deal of time and energy to the work of directing the educational program which is being developed in the Goshen Public Schools.

death of a cockroach

(APOLOGIES TO HENRY W. LONGFELLOW)

Under a dying apple tree
A baby cockroach stands
Pursued—a frightened bug is he,
He fears pursuer's hands.
And the deafening pounding in his ears
Resembles concert bands.

Which way to turn, which way to go,
The bug is undecided.
A noise—the cockroach crouches low
But no, the beast has hid.
And like a fool he makes a run—
Too late, the bird, he lighted.

—Sue Farrell

CLASS OF 1954

Eight long years of being in grade school and wishing to be in High School were finally over. September 1950 found us, the class of "54", entering the doors of long awaited G.H.S., at long last. Our freshman year was very successful under the fine leadership of Miss Ethel Grogg and Mr. Harold Kastner.

We were sophomores in the fall of 1951 and what a memorable year it was. Our hidden (?) talent came forward and our variety show,

"Fuedin', Fussin', & Flirtin'", presented May 16, 1952, was a great success.

Two years have passed quickly and we are at last "upper classmen." Mr. Ralph Anderson, who replaced Mr. Rollin Hoover, and Miss Grogg are our ever-helpful sponsors. Under their capable leadership we have had a most successful class play, "One Foot in Heaven," and an outstanding Junior-Senior Prom and Dance.

Officers this year were:

President.....	Robert Backus
Vice President.....	Frank McCloskey
Secretary.....	Linda Smalley
Treasurer.....	Terry Seaman
Sergeant-at-arms.....	Mary Ann Gill James Beaupre
Sponsors.....	Miss Grogg Mr. Anderson

the wastebasket

An old wastebasket! What a dull subject!

Yes, it is just an ordinary tin wastebasket like those found in every classroom in every school, but unexciting? Oh, no!

This wastebasket calls room 502 home. Thus it is an intelligent well-spoken wastebasket and never splits an infinitive or leaves a participle dangling. Sometime it intends to write its memoirs, "Tales from a Wastebasket."

This wastebasket avidly reads all material dumped into him, for he is hoping to find another Shakespeare. So far, his labors have been in vain. It seems as though these modern students would rather shoot water pistols than write plays.

This wastebasket has a high moral character and will absolutely, positively, never disclose any secrets. How he wishes he could tell about that one note—wrote—breaking their date. The wastebasket was forced to hide his blushing face behind an old sheet of paper, because the language in the epistle was so shocking!

Does a wastebasket have troubles? Of course! Of great tribulation to him is Miss Zook and her flowers! It's so embarrassing to him to have flower stems sticking out of his ribs, when he tries so hard to be in the top ten of the best dressed wastebaskets.

Now do you think he's just an ordinary wastebasket?

the crimson staff 1953

The Crimson is the high school yearbook published annually by the senior class. The publication holds membership in the National Scholastic Press Association and has been awarded first class honor rating on several occasions.

The purpose of the Crimson is to provide a permanent record of Goshen High School life, programs, and activities. The staff is composed of seniors who have scholastic, literary, artistic, and executive ability.

The educational benefits derived by the staff are numerous. Not only do the members receive practical training in writing and business, but also they learn to assume responsibilities in a project that involves co-operation among themselves and with the public.

The editor of the 1952 Crimson is Patsy Rupholdt and assistant editors are Barbara Weaver and Sarah Newell.

Guidance is given to all by the sponsor, Miss Eda Margaret Barnes.

student council

The Goshen High School Student Council consists of 25 members who represent the student body in the administrative aspect of student government in the school. The purpose of the Student Council is to promote social loyalty and gain as high a school standard as possible. Each year the Council has a number of standing committees which are provided for by the Constitution. These committees are: Citizenship, Scholarship, Sportsmanship, Maintenance, Program, and Publicity.

From this year on, the Student Council will not be a money raising organization. It was decided upon by the Council to spend school funds for a new microphone and speakers for the auditorium and a new Public Address System for the school.

Five students are elected from each class to serve for one semester, along with each class president. This Council meets every two weeks with its sponsor, Mr. Tom Sovine. At these meetings discussions are held on the activities concerning the school and ways in which it might be improved.

Members elected to the Council for the second semester of the 1952-53 school year were as follows: Seniors—Dellaurea Smith, Ardith Smoker, Bill Kaser, Doug Naylor, and Bill McKibben. Juniors—Jeanette Swihart, Sue Laufraw, Phil Nofzinger, and Stan Warnick. Sophomores—Julie Stoutenour, Margaret Heyde, Nancy Weaver, George Ernsberger, and Bob Garringer. Freshman—Marie Morgan, Doug Corporon, Dave Plaut, Allen Pease, and Chuck Lehman.

national honor society

It is a special honor to become a member of the National Honor Society in our school. The membership of the organization is based on scholarship. Those eligible to become members are the students ranking in the upper 5 per cent of the Junior class and the top 15 percent of the Senior class.

The National Honor Society is a nation wide association. It is affiliated with the National Association of Secondary School Principals. The purpose of the association is to encourage higher scholastic work among high school students.

The main project of the Goshen chapter is to help worthy seniors obtain scholarships. A national scholarship examination is sponsored each year by the society. Gordon Pease, a member of the Goshen chapter, rated last year in top ten per cent of all students participating.

the sunshine society

Under the capable leadership of our master key, Shayne Malone, and her seven links that make up the Sunshine golden key chain, the G.H.S. Sunshiners of 52-53 received the keys to unlock Sunshine's many treasures. The year books furnished the keys for each activity of the year. At a formal candlelight service the new initiates received their membership keys and instructions for unlocking Sunshine's door to ideal womanhood. The prayer key unfolded the treasures of religion to the student body, faculty, and friends at an impressive Thanksgiving Chapel Service.

The member's efforts were then directed toward increasing the treasury key by the annual sale of holly wreaths. At Christmas time volunteer keys unlocked the hearts of many charitable members in the form of white gifts for handicapped children. The keys of charity and service were again needed to support the Riley Hospital Fund, the Nurse's Scholarship Fund, and the Crusade to Save the Children Federation.

A Saint Patrick's Day party strengthened the keys of friendship for all Sunshiners. In the spring the key to community service unlocked the church doors to a beautiful and sacred Easter Sunrise Service. In May the keys of gratitude and good fortune were extended to senior members. The Sunshine Society composed of nearly two hundred girls reached its goal for 52-53 in presenting to its members the key to a life of service.

the sunshine society

the tomahawk

The Tomahawk is the high school newspaper, the key which unlocks the door to all events at G.H.S.—past, present, and future. It is distributed bi-weekly to students and faculty free of charge. The publication is a member of the Indiana High School Press Association and the National Scholastic Press Association.

The staff is composed of juniors and seniors, with the executive jobs held by those who have had a year of experience on the Tomahawk. All members of the newspaper staff take a semester of journalism during the junior year. Students receive valuable training by working on the newspaper. This experience may be in journalistic writing, copy reading, selling advertising, typing, stenciling, mimeographing, or management.

The editorial staff of the paper includes all writers for the periodical; advertising department sells advertising and reproduces the copy on stencils; the production department is in charge of typing copy, stenciling, and mimeographing; circulation is responsible for assembling and distributing the Tomahawks; the business department handles all newspaper correspondence and attends to financial transactions.

girls athletic association

The Girls Athletic Association offers every girl a chance to participate in and understand sports. Being a "Hoosier" club the G.A.A. promotes better cheering sections. This year for the first time, a booster section was formed and practices were held before every game. Only those attending the practices could sit in the cheering section. G.A.A. provides colorful signs and banners for display on game nights. The G.A.A. sponsored several pep sessions, the largest being the snake dance and rally at the court house preceding the Goshen-Elkhart football game.

During the noon hour organized sports are provided by the club with contests held and trophies going to the winners.

girls athletic association

The club's social activities this year consisted of the initiation and pot luck supper, installation ceremonies, swimming parties and play days with neighboring schools.

The organizations meetings are held once a month and usually a program is presented which deals with sports or related subjects. This year G.A.A. has a new sponsor, Miss Mildred Lemen.

scribblers

The main goal of the Scribblers club is to promote and encourage creative writing among G.H.S. students.

The club meets once a month in the school library. At these meetings, members present original manuscripts, which are given constructive criticism by the group.

Among the club's other activities this year were two guest nights, a buffet supper, and a Christmas party.

New members joining Scribblers in November were: Doris Wortinger, Barbara Weaver, Jane Gorham, Martha Neff, and Candy Cummings.

Members admitted in March were: Janet Schenck, June Wenger, Nancy Sovine.

latin club

"Great Jupiter, to whose almighty throne both gods and mortals homage pay". —LORD BYRON

The "puellae and pueri" of Latin Club began their excursion through Rome on the 23rd day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-two in the "atrium" of G.H.S. John Hawks as Jupiter, the highest god of the Roman World, was chosen to lead the modern Romans through the 1952-53 school year. Accompanying him were Juno, the supreme goddess of Mount Olympus, home of the Roman gods; Apollo, patron god of Roman athletes; Diana, goddess of the moon, who was the guide and protector of the "puellae" and an excellent huntress; Mercury, messenger of the gods and known as "Prince of Storytellers"; Minerva, the goddess of learning, wisdom, and justice; Neptune, the dignified and stately god of the sea; "laughter-loving" Venus who delighted in youthful sentiments and was ever-ready to lend a helping hand to all her favored mortals as they traveled through Rome.

On their rambles about this mystifying country, many exciting adventures were encountered, some of them being: the Roman "Saturnalia" held in the spacious and well re-known "forum" of the high school, the candy sale during which only the prominent sophomores competed, the contest being climaxed by a "Roman Adventure" held in November in "Cleopatra's Cafe". An additional experience of the tour was the purchase and use of a radio, record player and disc recorder set for the club, sponsored by the 1951-52 officers and supported by all members of Latin Club.

The journey was culminated by the arrival of the "finis" of school and the long-awaited annual Roman Banquet held in the cheery atmosphere of the "domus" of a citizen of Rome. Having concluded the outstanding social event of their excursion, one hundred and twenty members made their trip homeward only to begin another one come next "annus."

The presiding gods and goddesses of the 1952-1953 school year were:

photography club

With the beginning of the school year, members of the Photography Club once more dusted off the darkroom equipment and moved in to make it the center of much enthusiastic "hypo-splashing." As usual, the club's well equipped darkroom is available to all club members during each day's extra-curricular period. This fact makes it possible for a beginning "shutter-bug" to launch himself full scale into a most interesting hobby field without the usual expense involved in setting up what can soon be a costly darkroom of his own. As an additional item of equipment, members may also use the club camera complete with flash gun, carrying case and tripod—thus are the member's photographic interests enriched.

The purpose of the club is to increase a member's knowledge and interest in the great American sport of "picture snapping." Having fun with a camera in a group such as this is a positive method of promoting a sound healthy spirit of cooperative endeavor and fellowship.

hoosier student librarian association

Hoosier Student Librarian Association originated on a state wide basis in 1949. The Goshen chapter was originated in the fall of 1952.

The objectives of the organization are: to increase pupil interest and participation in library work; to promote friendship among librarians and student librarians throughout the state; to attract good pupil assistants; and to arouse interest in librarianship as a profession. The state meeting was held at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, in October.

One of the projects this year was a coke party for the faculty, celebrating book-week, November 17.

A high-light of the year was a meeting held in the Goshen College Union Auditorium, March 21, at which time the North Central Division was organized and officers were elected.

commercial club

The principal purpose of the Commercial Club is to promote friendly relationships with businessmen in the community and encourage students participation in the various occupations.

The club is made up of approximately 180 members who are taking at least one course in business education.

The projects for the 1952-53 year are: (1) a field trip to Ball State Teachers College; (2) a field trip to Fort Wayne Business College; (3) the Christmas decorations in the high school; (4) the sale of red and white carnations at Elkhart vs. Goshen athletic contests and sectional tourney; (5) a visit through business firms in town.

With the capable assistance from our sponsors, Miss Ethel Grogg and Mr. Charles Hart, the club has more than doubled its membership in the last year.

The Biggest "G" In G.H.S.

The Goshen High School Band composed of seventy-five members has taken part in many school activities this year.

The Band supported the team at all of the basketball and football games. The marching band with its sixty members resplendent in their crimson and white uniforms marched, and performed many novel and unusual formations at the home football games. The marching band was also a guest at the Niles football game.

Many of the band members participated in the solo and ensemble contests winning numerous awards.

The G.H.S. Band also took part in a concert with the orchestra on January 22. The band ended a very successful year with the 32nd anniversary on April 24th, 1953. Much credit for the outstanding and successful year, has been due in a great degree to the unselfish and untiring efforts of the band director, Mr. R. A. Brinklow.

orchestra

The orchestra, consisting of twenty-five pieces, is under the direction of Mr. Erwin and Mr. Brinklow.

Music is provided by the orchestra for the junior and senior class plays, the Baccalaureate service, Class Day, and Commencement exercises. On January 22 of this year the orchestra gave a concert.

A number of the orchestra's members also participated in the solo and ensemble contests which were held in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis.

GOSHEN REDSKINS RAMBLE TO A 26 TO 0 WIN OVER GARY WIRT

A galloping group of breakaway backs and a small but spirited line turned in a talented performance as the Goshen Redskins rambled to a 26 to 0 victory over out-classed Gary Wirt to start the 1952 pigskin parade at Foreman Field. "Pug" Hoover, Larry Beachy, and Dave Landaw carried the scoring honors. Hoover scored two touchdowns of six and seven yards each. Beachy carried on a 15 yard slant through the left side to score and Landaw intercepted a pass to run 33 yards for a T. D.

G.H.S. GRIDDERS NIP OLD ENEMY, ELKHART, 21-14

Once again the Redskins rolled over the larger Elkhart foes. Lightning fast "Pug" Hoover carried the pigskin for 40, 44, and 5 yards to score the points which were followed by Beachy's 3 points after the touchdowns. Miller, McCloskey, Knight, and Naylor sparked the Goshen squad tirelessly throughout the game.

ADAMS DEFEATS THE REDSKINS 7-6 IN THE LAST PERIOD

MISHAWAKA ELEVEN EARNs 21-0 VICTORY

The local football team went down to defeat before a heavy Maroon eleven after holding them to a 0-0 score during the first half. The conference game was played in Foreman Field Friday night, September 26, before a sellout crowd. Mishawaka came back to score three touchdowns and take a 21-0 victory.

In the early part of the game Goshen's lighter forwards outcharged the heavy Maroon line and literally rushed them off their feet.

Goshen piled up 128 yards, all in the first half; and on one occasion Beachy carried the ball 34 yards, but Goshen failed to score.

The Maroons began to roll in the third quarter, scoring two touchdowns. Magnuson ran 45 yards for the first tally, and the other was the result of a Swartz-Koscis pass. A pass in the last period brought the final MHS T.D. The game ended with the visitors on top, 21-0.

REDSKINS SNAP NILES 20 GAME WIN STREAK 13-0

The conference-toughened Goshen Redskins toppled the Niles Vikings from the ranks of Michigan's unbeaten elevens, 13-0, for their 3rd gridiron victory of the 1952 season before 3,000 fans at Niles. Barney Rassi made the play of the evening when he took Beachy's pass away from three Vikings for a net gain of 17 yards.

GOSHEN REDSKINS BATTLE MICHIGAN CITY TO 7-7 TIE

An inspired Goshen Redskin eleven came roaring from behind on an 80-yard sustained scoring drive late in the final period to tie the Michigan City Red Devils, 7 to 7, in an Eastern division N. I. H. S. C. thriller at Ames field. This tie brought to a close the 14 year jinx which held Goshen winless on the combination baseball-football field. Larry Knight, Frank Miller, Dean Ramer, Dave Landaw, Skeet Cripe, Larry Dubbs, Barney Rassi, Frank McCloskey, Phil Nofzinger, Don Myers, and Don Auer made up the forward wall that stopped the Red Devils to a 120 net yards. Hoover barreled through for eight yards to score and Beachy converted the extra point. Naylor, who was knocked out in the last quarter, turned in one of his best games at the quarterback spot.

RUGGED REDSKINS SHATTER RILEY'S TITLE HOPES. 7-7

The 160 pound average line held the Riley eleven to 87 rushing yards and taught them a big lesson. Riley and Goshen turned in one of the best defensive battles on Foreman Field. Naylor unquestionably called his best game of the season while Hoover turned in an average of 100 yards in 27 tries. Beachy, who was knocked out in the last quarter, combined with Frank Miller, Don "Wimpy" Myers, and Dean Ramer to play a bang up defensive game which finally ended in a 7-7 tie.

REDSKINS STUN NORTH SIDE 20 TO 0 IN N. I. H. S. C. FINALE

Two sensational first quarter touchdown runs of 56 and 90 yards by "Pug" Hoover and a 67-yard six point scamper by Larry Beachy with an intercepted pass in the third period gave Goshen a stunning 20 to 0 victory over Fort Wayne North Side at Foreman field. An important fumble pick up by Larry Dubbs and expert all around playing by Doug "Nails" Naylor and Frank Miller along with the rest of the G. H. S. squad proved too much for the North Side Eleven.

REDSKINS CUT CULVER'S VICTORY STRING. 14-13

A crippled but revenge-bent Goshen Redskin eleven fought for and won its fifth football victory of the 1952 season by clipping Culver Military's five-game winning streak in a 14 to 13 thriller at Foreman Field. Hoover scored both touchdowns before he was taken out with an eye injury and Beachy converted the two points after touchdowns.

GOSHEN REDSKINS TRIP NEW PARIS 61-48 IN OPENER

The Goshen Redskins rallied to take a lead, which they never relinquished, to stop the stubborn New Paris Cubs, 61-48. Frank Forgatsch was high point man with 26 points for the night. Phil Nofzinger, Larry Eldridge, and Joe Shank also added seven points each.

CRIMSON CAGERS BOW TO BULLDOGS BY 46-40 SCORE

The Goshen Redskins battled a seasoned Nappanee quintet on equal terms down to the final four minutes of play before losing out, 46 to 40 in the Nappanee community gym. Frank Forgatsch and Phil Nofzinger both netted nine points each while guards Gerald Edwards and Joe Shank accounted for seven each.

BLAZERS TOP REDSKINS 83-59

The Goshen Redskins continued to show improvement after giving Elkhart a scare for two quarters of the Goshen Elkhart basketball game in the EHS gym. Thanks to the sharpshooting of Joe Shank who hit 22 points, Goshen was able to stay in the ball game. He was followed by Now—Let's Win!!!

Forgatsch and Nofzinger who notched 12 each. But it was Tillman of Elkhart with his jump shots and Lucas with 18 and 17 points respectively which carried the "Big Blues" to victory.

CADETS MARCH OVER GOSHEN QUINTET 67-60

Howe's Military five won their sixth straight game as they defeated Goshen in the G.H.S. gym. The game was not a complete rout as the closeness of the score indicates. Although Goshen only outscored Howe in one quarter, neither team was ahead by more than seven points and many a time the score was one point difference. For Goshen, Shank and Forgatsch had 23 and 12 points. While Lynch and Neidballa had 21 apiece for Howe.

JOHN ADAMS DEFEATS GHS FIVE BY 77-48

The South Bend John Adams Eagles rolled in 51 baskets and added 15 free throws to outclass the Goshen basketball Redskins 77 to 48, in an Eastern Division Northern Indiana High School conference tilt in John Adams gym. Joe Shank, confined to one first period basket, netted eight to lead the Goshen scoring with ten tallies.

MIDDIES RAMBLE OVER REDSKINS IN 64-47 GAME

A sharp-shooting crew of husky Middlebury Middies rolled to an easy 64 to 47 victory over the Goshen basketball Redskins in the G.H.S. gym. Joe Shank, Goshen's steady senior guard, was high point man for the fourth straight game. Shank hit 16 counters giving him 85 tallies to date.

CENTRAL DEFEATS GOSHEN 70-43

The Central Bears had an easy time defeating the Goshen Redskins in the John Adams gym. Although the Goshen five outscored Central in the third quarter and made 52 points the last half, they were not able to stop Central's fast break which netted them 37 points the first half and 33 the last half. Forgatsch had 19 and Edwards had 11 for Goshen while Harvey picked up 21 for Central.

WARSAW TAKES EASY ONE FROM G.H.S. REDSKINS, 69-53

The Tigers were chased by the Redskins all evening, but they were in no danger of being caught, winning the game, 69 to 53. Goshen had ample opportunity at the free throw stripe, but missed 18 while making 9. The Redskins held their own in the final two quarters, but a 36-21 Warsaw half-time lead lost the game for G.H.S.

REDSKINS PULL UPSET OVER KENDALLVILLE 54-52

The Crimson Cagers pulled a perfect upset over Kendallville in the New Year's Tourney at the Kendallville gym on New Year's Day. It was Joe Shank who hit a layup to make the winning basket and to break a tie score at 52 all. Kendallville who hadn't been beaten in 10 games found themselves behind at the end of the half 35 to 20. They came back onto the floor the third quarter pressing Goshen all over the floor and came within one point of the Redskins as the score stood 40 to 41 beginning the 4th period. But the Redskins held on out-scoring the Comets 54-52 to win the game. For Goshen, Forgatsch was high with 16 points followed closely by Edwards who had 12.

COLUMBIA CITY'S EAGLES STOP REDSKINS IN FINAL 54-57

Columbia City defeated Goshen in the New Year's Tourney final 54 to 57 after the Goshen five had beaten Kendallville in the afternoon. The Crimson Quintet fell behind in the 2nd period and never came close after that, although Frank Miller hit 8 tallies in the 3rd quarter. For Goshen it was Shank and Miller with 9 and 8 points in the Championship Game.

MICHIGAN CITY STOPS REDSKINS BY 61-40 SCORE

Coach Ick Osborne's Michigan City Red Devils, dark-horse contenders for the conference crown, employed their speed and pressing defense to good advantage in the last half to down the Goshen Redskins 61 to 40 in the GHS gym. Frank Forgatsch, veteran senior forward, was high-point man for Goshen with 12 points.

REDSKINS RALLY TO CLIP CONCORD MINUTEMEN, 56-54

Coach Hugh Jones' Crimson Cagers came charging back from a nine-point deficit midway in the third quarter to overhaul the Concord Minutemen, 56 to 54 before a large Concord following and a sparse group of Redskin rooters in the Nappanee community gym. Joe Shank caged the crucial basket by taking a Concord rebound and driving the length of the floor to score.

REDSKINS' RALLY IS CUT SHORT BY NORTH SIDE FIVE

Trailing by as many as 18 points, the Goshen basketball Redskins displayed poise and confidence in rambling back to within five points midway in the third period and again early in the fourth quarter before Fort Wayne North Side pulled away to a 69 to 51 Eastern N.H.S.C. win in the North Side gym. Joe Shank netted 19 tallies. Frank Forgatsch netted 11, Gerald Edwards had 10, and Frank Miller caged nine.

Not a sour note among them!

rington, Keith Swihart. STANDING—Clayton Enamert, Philip Keim, Larry Eldridge, Dean Gorsuch, Ronald Baumgarten.

PANTHERS SHADE REDSKINS FIVE IN 48-45 THRILLER

Shades of the same sparkling style of play shown in road game victories over Kendallville and Concord almost carried the Crimson Cagers to their first conference win before a cheering home crowd; but South Bend Washington closed the cellar door in the final four minutes 48 to 45. Frank Forgatsch and Joe Shank shared top scoring honors with 15 points each.

INDIANS SCALP REDSKINS 71-46

It was all Leland Weldy and Jimmy Loucks as they caged 26 and 21 points to carry most of the load in defeating the Crimson Cagers. Goshen outscored in every quarter just couldn't seem to get rolling and found themselves out-classed by the small country school. Edwards was the big gun for Goshen getting 20 points on 8 field goals and 4 free throws.

ELKHART TOPS GOSHEN 56-39

Elkhart with a well balanced scoring attack rolled to an easy victory in the Goshen gym. Although Goshen fought gamely they just couldn't seem to cope with Elkhart's height which enabled them to take 49 shots to Goshen's 34 in the first half. Miller was high point man with 15 for Goshen while Lucas and Glassburn had 18 and 13 respectively.

SLICERS KNIFE REDSKINS 63-48

Being outscored in every quarter the Goshen five lost to LaPorte. Although never out of the game Goshen couldn't seem to catch up with the Slicers. The Redskins, however, did pull up within four and three points respectively during the third and fourth periods showing that they still were full of fight. For Goshen it was Shank and Edwards with 19 and 15 points while Birch hit 21 for LaPorte.

COMETS SHADE REDSKINS BY 51-50 IN LAST SECOND

A gallant comeback bid by a relentless Goshen Redskin quintet was snuffed out when Wayne Wiese's rebound shot beat the scoreboard clock by one second to give Kendallville a 52-51 revenge victory in the GHS gym. Sophomore center Phil Keim wheeled and whipped in three field goals while Dean Gorsuch and Phil Nof-zinger both turned in fine performances.

RILEY EASES OUT IN SECOND FRAME FOR 70-51 WIN

Seasoned South Bend Riley, shackled to a 12-12 standstill in the first quarter, utilized its size and speed to break away from a fighting Goshen Redskin quintet, 70 to 51, in the final home game of the season last night. Joe Shank again headed the scoring list with 17 points. Frank Forgatsch, who stays in there plugging every game, had 14 points.

MAROONS STOP REDSKINS 40-24

The Goshen Redskins displayed a new type of offensive which consisted of stalling were in the game until the final minutes of the fourth quarter. The Redskins led at the end of the 1st quarter 9 to 8, were behind at the half 16 to 13, and at the end of the third it was the Mishawakans 23 to 17. Mishawaka began to roll in the fourth quarter rolling up 17 points while holding the Redskins to only seven. Shank was high in points for Goshen counting for nine counters and he was followed by Hinckley with six.

TOURNEY

GOSHEN DEFEATS SCOTT 55-40 IN FIRST GAME OF SECTIONAL TOURNEY

The Goshen Redskins defeated the Scott Bulldogs easily in the 2nd game of the second session. Although Scott put up a good fight they were too outclassed by the Crimson Cagers who went ahead 8 to 1 in the first period and held the lead throughout the game. Frank Forgatsch was high point man for Goshen scoring 23 points, which was the most scored by a Goshen player in the past 10 years.

BLAZERS JINX REDSKINS 52-50

The Elkhart Blazers defeated Goshen in the nightcap game of the sectional tourney after both ball clubs had won their afternoon games. Although Goshen took a 4-1 lead in the first quarter, they couldn't keep up with the Elkhart quintet who outscored the Redskins in every quarter. This was the last game for seniors Joe Shank, Frank Forgatsch, and Frank Miller.

tennis

For the first time in the history of Coshen High School an athletic team finished first in the E.N.H.S.C. This was the record of the 1952-53 tennis team which won eight straight matches without a defeat and then defeated Hammond Tech by a score of 3-2 in the post season playoff for the Championship.

The team composed of two seniors, five juniors, one sophomore, and three freshmen defeated defending champion Elkhart, S. B. Riley, LaPorte, Michigan City, S. B. Central, and Fort Wayne North by a score of 5 to 0. They then defeated Mishawaka by a score of 4 to 1, John Adams 4 to 1 and Hammond Tech 3 to 2 in the playoff.

The tennis team won a total of 20 singles and 15 doubles in rolling up their magnificent record.

Much of the credit for the team's fine victory record belongs to Coach Tom Sovine who led the G.H.S. tennis team from cellar of the conference to the top of the ladder.

The team will lose two of its players thru graduation when seniors Bill Ramsby and Frank Forgatsch receive their diplomas in the spring. But they will have experience and are expected to win some important matches next year.

cross country

Goshen High School had one of its better seasons in cross country as they placed runners in a high percentage of the meets. Coached by Hugh Jones, they made an excellent showing. Juniors Randy Oswald, Bing Pratt, Dick Hinckley, and Gerald Edwards combined with Seniors Joe Shank and Nico Wiese to win many honors. The underclassmen on the team consisted of Clayton Emmert, Eddie Nelson and Larry Eldridge. The Goshen squad should be strong next year due to the fact they will lose only two seniors. Due credit should be given to Randy Oswald who earned a trip to state and won twenty-fifth out of one hundred sixty-two runners.

scenes from the 1952 relays

1953 relays

A red-hot Gary Froebel track team, ignoring below freezing temperatures, swept to victory in the Class A division of the 11th annual Goshen Relays on Foreman Field Saturday afternoon.

Plymouth's Pilgrims captured the Class B crown with 37 points, four better than runnerup Garrett could muster. Kendallville, Rochester, and South Whitley were bunched in third with 30 counters each.

With four out of five relay teams bringing home blue ribbons Froebel cornered 47 points to edge second place Elkhart. The Blue Blazers tallied 41¼ points to finish ahead of third place Hammond with 39 points.

South Bend's four representative finished far down the "A" list of 17 teams. Central paced the quartet with 12 points, good enough for 11th place. Riley wound up a notch behind with 11½ points while John Adams was finishing 15th with eight and Washington 15 with 5¼.

THREE RECORDS FALL.

Three "A" records fell and a fourth was tied during the afternoon. Froebel's sprint relay squad gave a hint of things to come when they shattered Gary Roosevelt's :45.7 mark with a :45.2 effort in the meet's opening event.

Michigan City's Braelon Donaldson and Hammond High's Jim Sane, the meets only individual double winners, took care of the other new marks. Donaldson cleared 12 feet ½ inch to win the pole vault and Sane lowered his own record in the 180-yard low hurdles to 20 seconds flat.

Riley's John Abell skimmed over the high hurdles in a record-equalling :15.2 effort in the preliminaries and was on his way to a finals triumph when he fell midway through the race. Abell was treated at Goshen Hospital for cuts and cinder burns. Sane, beaten by Abell in the prelims, went on to win the event in :15.9.

Donaldson collected his second trophy in the broad jump, leaping 21 feet four inches.

WHITAKER TIES FOR FIRST

Riley's Dick Whitaker won South Bend's only first place, sharing top spot in the high jump with Froebel's Eugene Greenlaw with a leap of five feet 10 inches.

Three "B" standards also fell as Kendallville's Bob Cotner covered the 120-yard high hurdle distance in :15.9; Whiting's John Allen did the 100 in 10.1; and Garrett's sprint medley team toured the distance in 1:35.7.

Donaldson won "A" high point honors with 10¼ points while Cotner captured the "B" cup with 11½ points.

Froebel was the sixth straight Gary winner but fell far short of Roosevelt's winning 1932 total of 75½ points.

PATSY RUPHOLDT, SENIOR, CHOSEN QUEEN OF THE 1953 RELAYS

Patsy Rupholdt, a senior, was chosen queen of the 1953 relays. A spirited contest resulted in the classes choosing Patsy as queen, with Sandra Haberstick, sophomore, Pat DeBaiggio, freshman, and Kay Holdread, junior, as her court of honor.

"annie get your gun"

Under the direction of Miss Barbra Zook the 1953 graduating class presented the play "Annie Get Your Gun," which was based on the original musical play, two nights to capacity crowds, March 13 and 14.

It is the story of Annie Oakley, the best shot in Darke County, who falls in love with Frank Butler, champion sharpshooter of the world, and travels the country with him in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Frank's jealousy of Annie's daring stunts overcomes him, and the two go separate ways—Annie with Buffalo Bill and Frank with the hated rival Pawnee Bill. But the two get back together again, only to end up having a match to settle once and for all who is the best shot. Before the match, Papa Bull makes Annie realize that she can't get a man with a gun, and the play ends in an exciting and unexpected climax.

"one foot in heaven"

Directed by Miss Barbra Zook, the junior class presented "One Foot in Heaven" on November 14 and 15. The play was taken from the book of the same title by Hartzell Spence.

The story concerned Reverend William Spence and his lively family and their troubles of moving into a new parish. Some of the many jobs that faced them were ridding the parish of racial prejudice and building a new church and parsonage. But Hartzell and Eileen, the two children faced problems of their own. Aided by their mother, they succeeded in changing some of their father's old-fashioned ideas.

president's address

Fellow graduates, faculty, parents, and guests:

We are assembled here this afternoon to honor the graduation class of 1953. I shall attempt to review for you the four wonderful years spent in G.H.S. We experienced the usual gayety, disappointments, fun, sorrows, and we trust—learning. We received these in a way common to the average American high school student. Now we realize that a tribute should be paid to those responsible for our education obtained here in our Alma Mater.

Here in these rooms were spent the most important years of our lives. Now the time has come for us to leave. Some of us will shed tears, some will take our departure less dramatically. But no matter how we feel about leaving—we know that to graduate from Goshen High School is an honor and a privilege.

As individuals we owe Goshen High School a great debt. Here we have obtained culture, integrity, emotional stability, and the right to do our own thinking—free thinking. We should not forget the part that guidance has played towards solving our problems. Especially do we wish to thank our fine and loyal sponsors, Mrs. Robert Garwood and Mr. Charles Hart. They have asked for nothing in return for their hard work and long hours—but that the class succeed and be worthy citizens.

As a class we owe much to our faculty who guided and trained us for the world of tomorrow. We fully realize that we are living and being educated in a democratic country where free public education gives hope and better understanding to all youth, regardless of race, color, or creed. We have been taught to face the future which at times looks very uneasy and indeed, very dark.

A student from behind the Iron Curtain could never have had the opportunity to live and be educated in a community such as Goshen. Should not our rich blessings inspire us with the very highest of ideals and make us realize the benefits obtained as high school students, of Goshen, Indiana, U. S. A.?

We wish to thank our parents, our faculty, our city, our state, our government—for these eventful years spent here at Goshen High School. We are confident that all concerned will be well rewarded for their faith in the Class of 53.

Thank you,
Richard Leavitt,
President

validictory

"If the entire population of the United States were wiped out tomorrow, their number would be less than the number of human beings who have died of violence, disease, or starvation in war or as a result of (war) during the last half century." This startling statement is from EDUCATION AND WORLD TRAGEDY written by Howard Mumford Jones, a well-known professor and writer at Harvard. What will be the record for the next half century? That is our problem!

Our instructors have tried to teach us more than the three R's. Have we learned this "something more" than the fundamentals? Have we learned to accept responsibility? Have we learned to understand ourselves and others well enough? Do we have a good philosophy of life—one that will sustain us in these perplexed times? Are we socially mature? Are we able to solve our emotional problems satisfactorily? Are we prepared for the public duties of active citizenship? Are we on our way to becoming loving and intelligent mothers and fathers of 1965's children?

We must be able to solve these problems satisfactorily today; for in order to be tomorrow's leaders we must meet today's problems.

During the twelve years we have spent in school we have learned to know and like many different people—friends our own age and our teachers. Although each of us has had different religious beliefs, different economic and social backgrounds, and, certainly, different personalities, we have worked together well as a class. Each of us has realized that the brotherhood of man must be a fact, not just an idealistic phrase or a dreamy hope. Do not all people want love, security, prestige, new experiences, and friendship? Do not each of the seven major religions of the world contain a Golden Rule which emphasizes the brotherhood of man? Each of us must use that Rule in our contacts with the girl or boy across the aisle, the D. P. family down the street, our friend in less fortunate circumstances as well as with our Asian, African, and other foreign friends. Each of us must work for peace. That means you and me!

We, the class of 1955, are thankful that we live in a democracy where we have been given the opportunity for a free education. We realize that our democracy is not perfect, and that it is the duty of each of us to put democracy to work in more and more phases of our lives. Democracy is not a goal, but a way of life which we must practice day by day. Democracy is the way we treat our neighbor whose dog barks every night, as well as the way we elect our president. Democracy is understanding and respecting, not merely "putting up with" or tolerating, the beliefs and customs of other races and religions. What will democracy be like after a half century of our leadership? That is our problem and our challenge.

—Barbara Allen Weaver

Parents, teachers, and friends:

We, the class of 1955, extend to you a sincere and cordial welcome to our Class Day exercises. We are honored to have you, who have made this day possible, share it with us. At times we have been faced with difficult problems, but with your help and interest we have overcome them and now have reached another milestone on our journey through life. On this milestone is written one word: Graduation.

During the past four years we have been traveling the road of academic education together as one class. We have shared our problems, friendships, and achievements together.

Today we are standing at the crossroads of life where each one of us must choose a road which he will travel more or less alone. We must pursue this road through rain or shine, through valleys, or over hilltops with unfaltering faith. Some of us will travel this road through education, some through business or professional services. Still others will travel this road through military service. Some of us might become weak and falter along the way, while others may travel the road easily. The goal we shall be seeking will also bear one word: Success.

Since we have reached the first milestone, we shall take a brief moment to recall the toils of the road. Yes, we have had our fun, problems, and have reached our goal: Graduation. As we rest this final moment together before traveling our new roads we shall recall the joys and troubles of our first mile; we shall offer to future travelers some advice gleaned from our experiences; and, finally, we shall confide in you our plans and hopes for the future. We invite you to share this moment with us.

—Stella Marie Saal

oration

Friends:

Courage is a quality of mind that enables us to face all things without fear. The Class of '55 must have the courage to face the future with fearlessness, to live day by day courageously. We must be valourous to think clearly, to decide upon a thing, and continue with it to the end.

To think clearly through our problems, we must have education in order to see all sides without prejudice. To do this, a clear, free mind is needed. It takes courage to possess a clear, free mind with all the advertisements and propaganda that we have thrown at us today.

After once seeing our problem open-mindedly, the next step is to make a decision. A courageous person will ponder long on a decision, going over the details again and again, and deciding the consequences of this move or that. In order to make a good decision, one must have faith in God, and confidence in oneself.

Once the decision is made, it calls for courage to act upon the decision—to do what we have decided is right. The colonists that settled at Jamestown in 1607 seeking freedom showed the courage to do what they believed was right. This courage was what our American Democracy was built on in 1775 with the fighting of the Revolutionary War. Doing what we believe is right, has led many heroic men into battle. Even today it takes courage to stand up for the right decision to our problems.

When we have succeeded to solve a problem, we gain courage to continue. Refusing to submit to failure is the final test of courage.

"There's the courage that nerves you in starting to climb

The mount of success rising sheer;
And when you've slipped back there's the courage sublime

That keeps you from shedding a tear.

These two kinds of courage, I give you my word,
Are worthy of tribute—but then,
You'll not reach the summit unless you've the third—

The courage of try-it-again!"

by Ray Farrell Greene—Betty Lou Bickel

class grumble

Fellow-laborers of the class of '53, parents, guests, and friends, (this does not include teachers):

We are now at the climax of four years at Goshen High School. We, as SENIORS, feel that there are a few changes that should be made at G.H.S.

First of all, we, the class of '53, have not been appreciated. We, too, were once lowly underclassmen, and as such upon seeing a SENIOR we would bow low at the waist and allow them to pass. Present day conditions are quite different. Upon stepping foot outside a classroom we are immediately trampled by poking, prodding underclassmen. We try so hard, but no one appreciates us. For instance, upon finding out that the attendance office had ordered an overly large amount of blue or unexcused absence slips the SENIORS came to the rescue. We forced ourselves to be absent and tardy without good cause, thus diminishing the great concern as to how and where to get rid of the excess blue slips. It hurt us deeply to be absent from our dear school, but we struggled to stay out of school. By this good deed we also kept the attendance officer very busy. But were we thanked for relieving them of all those blue excuses? No, but that's life.

There are also several adjustments that greatly improve old G.H.S.

Since the first days of our high school career we had looked forward to first floor lockers. (These lockers until this year had been considered in "hallowed ground"; for there were to be found SENIOR lockers.) Now we, as SENIORS, have third floor lockers. It was a nuisance for us to climb the many stairs so early in the morning. Because of this problem we have been forced to allow at least an extra 15 minutes every morning in order to climb the stairs. This means all SENIORS have to rise, (but not shine), at the unearthly hour of 16 minutes 'til 8. Near the middle of the day you can easily distinguish the SENIORS from the rest of the students. They have to rest on the landings between flights of stairs. Every day there seems to be an extra step added. Escalators would be a great improvement.

There has also been the problem of auditorium programs. Before this year it has been an unwritten law that those in the cheaper seats or underclassmen must remain frozen in their uncomfortable chairs until every SENIOR has left the auditorium. This year we are mobbed upon leaving by restless underclassmen. The programs themselves have been quite tolerable, but we believe there should be more artists such as Ralph Flanagan, Stan Kenton, Frankie Laine and Louie Armstrong to grace the stage of

G.H.S. Also for the SENIORS there should be tilt-back cushioned seats.

The school clocks also present quite a problem at times. In the morning we set our watches with the time given by the radio. Upon arriving here we find that the clocks are approximately 6 minutes fast. Because of this we are left with very little time to climb the stairs. The next day you set your watch 6 minutes fast so as to be with school time, however you soon discover to your dismay that the clocks have been set back about 10 minutes. What a delightful game we must play with the school in order to determine just what the actual time is!

Since the old student-engraved desks in study hall No. 205 have been replaced by large blonde tables this year it seems a shame that we are not allowed to use them for eating purposes. They lend themselves so well to, well, to a number of things from passing notes under cover of the tables to a quick game of cards while the teacher's back is turned. A concession stand that sells cokes, candy bars, french fries, and a few other essentials to a teen-agers' diet should be placed at the back of the room. It seems that the faculty has slipped up on this money-making possibility.

There is only one possible thing which we have nothing, absolutely nothing to grumble about, and that is—we graduate this year.

—Sally Risser

class history

A key unlocks the door to many things. There are keys to happiness, keys to fame, keys to your house, keys on your piano, and just plain, old, ordinary car keys. But I am talking about a very special key. The key to the diary of the class of 1953.

The first page under the silver and ice blue cover is dated September 6, 1949. It was on this eventful day that 180 wide-eyed freshmen entered the halls of Goshen High. Maybe we felt a little lost, but we were proud too; proud that we were now G.H.S. students. We must have been a peculiar sight to all who were watching. The freshmen boys dodging upperclassmen, and the freshmen girls were busy looking over the new field of prospective males.

It didn't take long to organize our class. Stephen Penn led the class with Larry Beachy as vice-president. Marcia Cross took the minutes, and Sue Farrell guarded our empty treasury. Patsy Rupholdt and David Landaw were to try to keep law and order. Miss Kyler and Mr. Gerig helped us through our first trying year.

The cafeteria was the scene of our first class party. "Swing your partner" was the cry as the frolic began. Dunking for apples dampened everything except our spirits.

How proud we were when the athletic members of our class received their G's, the first that had ever been given to freshmen.

The day of the 1930 relays was a big one for the freshmen. Sandra Gee ran a close second to the queen, Doris Deter.

Summer vacation rolled around, and we left our alma mater.

Back again and the class of "53" was raring to go. Our capable president, Larry Beach, was assisted by Stephen Penn. Sue Farrell was elected to keep the minutes, and Patsy Rupholdt became the keeper of the small treasury. Marcia Cross and Doug Naylor attempted to keep the class under control during our meetings. Our new class sponsors were Miss Simmers and Mr. Owings.

Our class won its first honor of the year when Sandra Gee was chosen as a majorette.

A gala ballroom dance at the Chamberlain gym was quite an affair for our social sophomores. Soft music, dim lights, a colorful Christmas tree, and a crowd of good looking sophomores all went together to make one of our most remembered class parties.

Our class was also prominent in athletics. Those receiving football letters were Larry Beachy, Rolland Hoover, Frank Miller, and Doug Naylor. Ronnie Keister received a "G" in cross country. Tennis G's were awarded to Frank Forgatsch and Bill Ramsby. Track letters went to Rolland Hoover, Doug Naylor, and Gene Greenawalt.

The class of "53" was the first to start the annual variety show, and what a show it was! The G.H.S. auditorium, alias the wild and wooly west, was ablaze as "Syncopated Sixguns" was presented. Our variety show proved to be a success and has now become a tradition with each Sophomore class.

By now the class was filled with a strong feeling of unity which has lasted throughout our high school days.

The time for the Roman Banquet arrived, and every sophomore in Latin Club was on hand to see that our Roman Banquet would excel all others.

Patsy Rupholdt and Nico Wiese were chosen as yell leaders.

Perhaps our highest honor of the year came the day of the 1931 relays when Sue Farrell reigned as relay queen.

As we left school for summer vacation, it was a great satisfaction to know that next year we would return as upper classmen.

This we did. Chosen to carry the heavy responsibilities of the junior class was Bob Brinklow. He was assisted by Larry Beachy, vice-president; Sue Farrell, treasurer; and sergeant-at-arms, Marianne Bigler and Lovell Shank. Mr. Hart replaced Mr. Owings as class sponsor.

We proudly presented our junior class play, "Remember the Day". Ardith Smoker portrayed a typical school marm while David Lehman thought of new ways to get into trouble. Other members of the cast were Sue Farrell, Larry Beachy, Janice Myers, Bob Brinklow, Ronnie Kiester, Betty Bickel, Jack Bowser, Dick Leavitt, Bill Kaser, Ed Bradford, Cheryl Brumbaugh, Eileen Conrad, Verlin Garber, Patsy Rupholdt, Carla Stephenson, Loren Kaufman, Barbara Amstutz, Shayne Malone, David Landaw, Bill McKibben, Phyllis Yoder, and Theodosia Hartzler.

Finally our much awaited class rings arrived although many of us didn't keep them very long.

Those that were in the upper 5% of the junior class became members of the National Honor Society. Among them were Betty Bickel, Theodosia Hartzler, Stella Saal, Ardith Smoker, Virginia Stemen, Barbara Weaver, Jane Wetzel and Phyllis Yoder.

It was a feather in our cap when Barbara Weaver won first place in the state contest for 3rd year Latin.

We were proud of our junior candidate, Jackie Benton, when she placed second in the Goshen relay queen contest.

In the athletic division top honors went to many members. Those who received football letters were Rolland Hoover, Larry Beachy, Doug Naylor, Ronald Riley, Frank Miller, and Clayton Nisley. Basketball letters were received by Lovell Shank, Frank Forgatsch, and Frank Miller. Bill Ramsby and Frank Forgatsch earned G's in tennis, and Larry Beach, Rolland Hoover, and Doug Naylor were awarded G's in track.

Our prom at Tippecanoe Lake was one that will long be remembered. Upon our arrival at the "Stork Club" we stepped into an atmosphere of sophistication and gaiety. Thus was a perfect ending for our junior year.

In the fall of 1932 our class, now top brass of G.H.S., entered Goshen High for our final year.

Our choice of Dick Leavitt for leader of our student activities was a wise one. Chosen to be his assistant was Rolland Hoover. Suzanne Baker assumed responsibility as secretary, and Jane Wetzel kept track of our booming treasury. Jackie Benton and Bud Elliott tried to keep us quiet.

The class of "53" always liked to be different, but they really hit the jackpot this year. With only eight months in which to raise money, the class decided to take a senior trip. But "never say die" was our motto, and we pulled through as we thought we would. We realize that this could have never been done without the guiding hands of Mrs. Garwood and Mr. Hart as well as all those who gave their time and effort.

The senior production of "Annie Get Your Gun" was a roaring success. The class is very proud of Sue Farrell, Byron Rassi, Larry Beachy, Sally Risser, Shayne Malone, Bill Kaser, Shirley Leiter, Martha Haney, Dave Lehman, Jack Bowser, Ed Bradford, Dave Schenk, Bob Brinklow, Dellaura Smith, Geri Christner, Jane Wetzel, Jane Rinker, Janice Myers, and Harry Winters.

We are proud to say that Rolland Hoover is a member of the class of "53". Pug, alias "Mr. Touchdown G.H.S.", was bestowed the honor of All Conference back for the "51" season and again for the "52" season.

Chosen to head the Tomahawk staff was Shirley Kaut. Patsy Rupholdt was named editor-in-chief of the Crimson.

Two members of our class, Bill Ramsby and Frank Forgatsch, helped to win Goshen High School's highest award, the North Central Conference championship. Our heroes were honored with a victory pep-session.

To share honors with the National Honor Society members previously named were Patsy Rupholdt, Sue Farrell, Shirley Kaut, Sarah Newell, Harry Winters, Charles Gorham, Larry Beachy, Janice Myers, Margaret Parsons, Berneice Smeltzer, Bill Kaser, Ronald Kiester, Peggy Stouder, Doris Boyer, and Wilhelmina Mote.

Again in our senior year we contributed our share of athletic ability. Letter winners in football were Larry Beachy, Dallas Cripe, Charles Gorham, Gene Greenavalt, Rolland Hoover, Dave Landaw, Dave Lehman, Frank Miller, Doug Naylor, and Byron Rassi. Our two tennis champions, Frank Forgatsch and Bill Ramsby, each received G's in tennis. Cross country G's were earned by Lowell Shank and Nico Wiese. Basketball letter winners were Lowell Shank, Frank Miller, and Frank Forgatsch.

Again the class of "53" triumphed to glory as the senior candidate, Patsy Rupholdt, was crowned queen of the Goshen Relays.

George Vander Wey was awarded first place at the Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio art exhibit at Fort Wayne for his sculpture.

The diary of the class of 1953 has now come to a close as far as high school is concerned, but the story will go on. We will look forward to the future with bright hopes and fond memories of the past four years.

The class of "53" has strived to excel in each of its undertakings. I believe we have succeeded, don't you?

—Patsy Rupholdt

class will

We, (141 at the last count) outstanding, never to be forgotten, remarkable class of nineteen hundred and fifty-three, being of "solid" mind and forgetful memory realize our wonderful days at Goshen High School are slowly coming to an end. Therefore we wish to cast off a few of our many possessions and make public, as well as declare this document, to be our last will and testament.

SECTION I

Item I. To the faculty, we bestow the honor of receiving the first copy of our new publication entitled, Fifty Billion Ways To Raise Money. This may be used to obtain money for boisterous parties or any other social events sponsored by the faculty.

Item II. To our wonderful, considerate, kind, understanding, helpful, ambitious, industrious, courteous, humorous, (pause) sponsors, Mrs. Bob Garwood and Mr. Charles Hart, we will all the happy memories and sincere appreciation of the class. All the unhappy memories may be divided among the faculty members. (Don't fight, fellows and gals.)

Item III. To all Goshen High School teachers, counselors, janitors, and anyone else who has had anything to do with us, we give our sincere thanks for making us what we are today.

Item IV. To the janitors we give all the left over scrap wood in the shop classes to maintain a temperature of 104° in all freshmen classes.

SECTION II

Item I. To the freshmen we bequeath our ability to conduct ourselves as straight, upright members of Goshen High School at all dances and school functions!

Item II. The senior girls, after much discussion and argumentation, leave their poise and refinement to all the sophomore girls. (There's plenty to go around.) To the sophomore boys, we the senior boys, will our ability to wear blue jeans and Tee shirts the year around. Note: We also leave our reputation to win the Relay Queen contest.

Item III. To the juniors we will our reputation to plan a trip at the last minute. Please do not use this until after the first semester.

SECTION III

Item I. Bill Ramsby and Patsy Rupholdt give their "A" grade excuses to anyone who can break their record of being late four out of five school days.

Item II. Charles "Farmer" Gorham wills his farming ability to Jim Weaver. This is to be used sparingly and only when absolutely necessary.

Item III. David Lehman leaves his megaphone voice to Dean Gerber so Dean will be able to conduct his class meetings more efficiently.

Item IV. Jon Robison and Ronnie "Curly" Sherck will their hair and a bottle of hair oil to John D. Miller. Take your pick, John.

Item V. To Pat Swart and Judy Gee we bequeath Sally Risser and Martha Neff's negative opinions toward all matters and problems.

Item VI. Lorraine Coggan wills her natural blonde hair to Janet Schenck and any other girl striving for the "bottled-blonde" look.

Item VII. Dallas "Skeeter" Cripe bequeaths his ability to block opponents twice his size, to Chuck Lehman.

Item VIII. "Big" Al Maire and Mac Pefly will their tall slim builds to Sid Griffith and Gerald Raber.

Item IX. Bill Kaser leaves his Red Dog Saloon adventures to Barry Beer. These are to be used in Miss Zook's Senior English classes.

Item X. The Senior Girls leave all their fancy hairdos to Nancy Cook. Jenny Morgan's horsetail is included in this collection.

Item XI. Ronald "Moose" Riley, our mechanical genius, wills all his ability to next year's Auto Mechanic classes. If there is any left over call 1817-J and Ronald will be glad to pick it up.

Item XII. To Mr. Schenck's Trig. Class we give Barney Rassi's reputation for selling magazine subscriptions and tickets for class projects. If this doesn't work we leave a small sum so you can buy your own candy bars.

Item XIII. Steve Bennett gives his hot rod driving qualities to Fi Fi Payne so he can follow in his brother's footsteps.

Item XIV. Harry Winters bequeaths his neatness in dress to Don Auer. With his looks and Harry's dress, Don should be quite popular with the fairer sex.

Item XV. Roberta Holderman, Shirley Kaut, and Dellaura Smith leave their quietness, efficiency and beauty to Carol John. By next year Carol should be the perfect girl.

Item XVI. "Giggles" Garringer wills her barrel full of giggles to Renee Sapro and any other shy freshman girl, to charm the male element of Goshen High School.

Item XVII. To Chuck Straub, we give Paul Fry's quiet way of talking, acting, and walking. Also Paul gives Chuck his ability to keep quiet unless called upon.

Item XVIII. Barbara Ganger bequeaths to Carol Headly two mirrors, three combs, one tube of lipstick, and one jar of rouge to be used only between classes.

Item XIX. Shirley "Mighty" Herman leaves her tremendous size to June Wenger in case June ever has that let-down feeling.

Item XX. Bill Sherck and Butch Bigler give their constant companionship in the halls of G.H.S. to Peg Berlin and her next year's steady.

Item XXI. Ed McQuillian, Bob Brinklow, Jane Wetzel and Sue Farrell leave their ability in poetry, music and acting to Miss Zook so that she can present the play, "Romeo and Juliet" by Barrymore, (or is that by Shakespeare?) Ah, well, it really doesn't make any difference.

Item XXII. David Landaw, suffering from a guilty conscious, wills his 162-page account of "My frequent trips to Indiana" to Sherlock Bemenderfer. We feel certain this will put Dave in the clear.

Item XXIII. To the new Goshen High School cheerleaders, Nico Wiese leaves his tumbling ability. This should prove very interesting.

Item XXIV. Since our class put out to sea our treasury is dry (Pause) and I am very sorry to say, we are unable to leave anything further. The best of luck to the many students who will follow in our footsteps.

As our sparkling career at Goshen High School slowly dwindles, we, the class of 1953, affix our hand and seal on this twenty-eighth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

We do hereby appoint Mr. Charles Burkett the executor of this, our last will and testament.

(Signed) THE CLASS OF 1953

Class of '54, fellow students and friends.

My fellow seniors and I who have been locked up in this building for four years have a few words of advice which we would like to pass on to you. If you take our golden gems of recommendations and follow them seriously your class will have no trouble in being the first group to have no graduates.

Our first bit of advice is to all students who are planning to take Chemistry next year. There will be no need to purchase a notebook or a pencil for this class. It is never needed here and as the professor in charge does not believe said items are necessary items of study. When in the laboratory never heed the advice of the instructor and always mix the ingredients double for the amount called for in the experiment. Thus you will receive a large reaction and possibly a big bang.

To all those lucky seniors who are taking English VII and VIII next year, go to class with two changes of clothing. One is for the time the radiators are working and the perspiration is rolling from your forehead; the other is when the radiators are shut off and you sit shivering in class. If you believe in fairy tales or gory murders in which the hero always dies, do not fail to sign up for English VIII. You will soon learn all about Bill Shakespeare's famous writings which we, the class of '53, doubt he wrote.

The future actors of America will be very interested in the new Dramatics course which has just been installed this year. This class teaches one how to converse with his fellow men without words, while going through a series of frivolous motions. This course is especially recommended for boys, as it teaches you how to apply make-up. Thus if your wife ever forgets how it is applied, you can show her how it is done.

If you are planning to take shorthand next year by all means take the class that meets from twelve to one. I hear that they seldom spend a full week in class without some interruptions cutting one of their periods short.

If you have the opportunity to pick your study hall, take the sixth period. The reason, Mr. Hart is planning to make his study hall students multimillionaires. His plan is to repossess and reprocess all of the old gum on the bottoms of the tables and chairs in the study hall.

When picking your senior play be sure to pick one that needs live game, such as pigeons or rabbits. Then when you are done with them in the play you might give them to the cafeteria. Therefore you will have less meatless Mondays.

Another matter of importance is that if you are planning to go to college take advantage of the free college counseling course that goes on in room 302. This service is run by an ex-Earlham graduate and her assistants are ex G.H.S. students returning from college.

The Class of '53 would like to thank their wonderful sponsors Mrs. Garwood and Mr. Hart, for all the small but important tasks they have done for us. If you the class of '54 and the succeeding classes follow the advice of your sponsors and use your common sense your senior year will be a truly great one.

—David Lehman

class prophecy

"So the furry, little ground hog burrowed down into his cozy, comfy home under the surface of Mother Earth and settled down for his winter nap." The End.

And so, another exciting, thrill packed hour is spent in the library reading of the numerous adventures of Gregory Groundhog. I hate to appear so satirical, but it is rather boring. After all, in this gala year of 1965 a young woman of my obvious beauty and intelligence should not spend long hours in a library. But I've been searching for something, a trace, a sign of a lost classmate, a friend, a—well, let's see. Perhaps if I glance through these magazines—

Let me see, ah yes, The New Yorker; ah, this looks like an interesting article, "Goings On About Town". Wouldn't it be a total shock if I found one of my old classmate's name listed among these celebrities of the Broadway stage. Oh, I should like to see this production very much. "I Found Love In Newfoundland" written by that aspiring, or should I say perspiring young playwright (Oh, good heavens!) Dick Leavitt. Starring in the title role of Bertha Bong, Girl Tree Surgeon, is none other than Jeannine Druley. The hero, Elusive Aladden, is played by that rising young actor Larry Beachy who, by the way, distinguished himself as the football coach of an outstanding eastern school, Y. B. C., Yowser Business College.

Let's see, what have we on this page? "Motion Pictures". Ah, this looks interesting, a sequel to "An American In Paris". "Three Yugoslavians in Lower Tibet" produced by that outstanding Hollywood magnate, John (Metro Goldwyn) Cornell. Associate producer is the famed flower of the movie world, Michael Garber, the leading character, Emil Shlodvessel, is portrayed by Jack Bowser, and his disolusioned heroine, Edna Whirlaway is played by Shayne Malone. Ah, to think I actually knew these brilliant people.

But let's progress—let me see, "The Talk of the Town". Here's an interesting article, "The well known, popular, young novelist, Edwin McQuillan, has had published a successful book on "How To Have Fun In Eastern Siberia". The publishing house putting out this directory is Cripe and Cripe, ably managed by George Cripe and Dallas Cripe. Much of the material for this book was compiled by Mr. McQuillan's secretary Margaret Parsons.

Oh, here's a piece of news, "The New York Symphony conducted by Robert Brinklow presented a concert at Carnegie Hall last week. Mr. Brinklow played a number of his own compositions along with those of another contemporary composer, Miss Jane Wetzel, who is seriously thinking of becoming a sousaphone soloist.

Well, we come to "The Art Galleries". Here's a bit of news, "A young American impressionist, George Vander Wey has created a series of paintings entitled "You Name It". Recent works of indescribable artistry, in fact, of complete indescribability have been produced by two promising young artists, Alan Maire and Jennifer Morgan. They have used for models several of the lovely young ladies of the Mlle. Suzanne Baker charm school. Hm, that name is familiar. Among her more promising students are Dellaura Smith, Jacqueline Benton, and Susanne Garringer.

Now let me see—the next article in "Books". Well—another old friend of mine has suddenly gained fame. "The Memoires of Meriwether Milestone" written by a rising young writer, Miss Sarah Newell has become very popular. The well known travel expert Miss Sally Risser has compiled her notes into a travelogue entitled "Canoeing Through the Bering Straits". She mentions several well known personages she encountered while on her numerous escapades. Among them are the famed geologists Bill Sherck, Ronald Schrock, and Keunon Shorthouse; the experts on Oriental dancing, Marcia Cross and Anne Emmert; the four famed jungle hunters Doug Naylor, Ronnie Kiester, Mac Peffley, and Al Shanahan; the famed American diplomats, Ambassador David Landau and Speaker of the House, David Lehman; and three Texas millionaires (they made their money from oil . . . and it was awfully messy) Dave Albaugh, Steve Bennett, and Keith Brown. Another writer of note is Ardith Smoker who has just finished a book of etiquette. One of the interesting bits of knowledge she gives out is how to fan a bowl of hot soup with your hat so that it looks like you're waving goodbye to your hostess.

Here's an interesting article concerning the sports world.

The well known tennis player, Bill (Tilden) Ramsby and Frank (Sedgeman) Forgatsch are planning a world tour. Ah, here are two famed sportsmen, Rolland (Pug) Hoover who has been named head coach of Notre Dame, Michigan State, Illinois, and Northwestern and in his spare time he's thinking of organizing his own ball club. Pitcher Bill McKibben of the Chicago Argyles (a branch of the White Sox) has been named outstanding player of the year. His agent is Terry (20%) Hoogenboom who is assisted by Franklin Shoap. And here's another piece of news, Nico Wiese, the famed gymnast is going on a world wide tour, his 425rd. He is being managed by those shrewd business men, Harry Winters and Ric Messick. The sports commentator on Station WOOF and WOOF-FM, wool and woofin is none other than Frank Miller and the sponsors of his program "Satisfying Solicitors of Succulent Sweets" are four business tycoons, Loren Kaufman, Bill Vander Maas, Gerald Risser, and James Kulp, and also the scientist who discovered this bit of delectability, Bill Kaser. Another sports figure, Joe Shank, has distinguished himself by becoming the first basketball player to wear cleats. The athletic instructor at Ypsilanti School for Girls, Miss Martha Neff has made an interesting discovery.

Bats used in the game of baseball are made of wood not molten lead as was thought before.

And now, we have news of the home. The well known New York fashion designer, Sonia Olouewski, has created fashions worn by all the best dressed women. She is ably assisted by Maurine Myers, Shirley Schieber, Mary Sue Speicher, and Sylvia Blosser. Models are often called in from the famed Edward Heyde Model Agency to model these lovely creations. Shirley Whitehead, Nancy Smith, Marian Holdread, and Loretta Hayes are four of the highest paid models in the business. They even own their own hatboxes.

Now here's an article of note, big businesses are booming mainly due to the fact there is an abundance of competent secretaries. A recent poll was taken and the following were said to be some of the outstanding ladies of business, Miss Janice Myers and Miss Roseanna Trenchaw and Miss Kay Chenoweth at the Black and Blue Concern, makers of ink spots; the Misses Shirley Ott, Evelyn Raber, and Barbara Ganger whose employers Keith Mast and Bill Graff have discovered a new substitute for food. It's excellent in all respects but one, you can't eat it; then there are the Misses Shirley Herman, Mary Ellen Robinson, and Eleanor Weaver whose interesting jobs at the United Pickle Workers Factory owned by Donald Beckner includes stuffing olives. This unique process is done by crawling through the holes and dragging the pimento behind them; the Misses Stella Saal, Jacqueline Steele, Peggy Stouder, and Carla Stephenson who are employed at the Rassi Real Estate Co. The owner Byron Rassi has installed a new plan of business whereby each girl has a 6 month vacation with pay and a 5 hour week averaging $200 a week.—it's very satisfactory.

Among the other outstanding business women are the Misses Shirley Kaut, Marianne Bigler, Barbara Weaver and Phyllis Yoder who have organized their own newspaper, The Not-So-Daily, Not-So-Newsy News.

The Misses Nancy Hoffhein, Roberta Holde-man, Mary Hartsough, and Coleen Holdread have formed a partnership and are opening a small Italian restaurant specializing in Chinese food. It promises to be interesting.

The Misses Shirley Leiter, Shirley Ann Zehr, Elaine Keim, and Sandra Cripe are well established in this city as beauty consultants. Their motto "Come in an old bag and walk out a new bundle" is well known. They have employed as four of their distinctive hair stylists Lorraine Coggan, Beverly Barbank, Eileen Conrad, and Mary Jane Cripe. I understand a popular mode this year is the shaved head.

My, this business world is really packed. Here's another article. It says, "What well known automobile agency is putting Cadillac motors in Nash Ramblers?" Hm, that would be interesting. Oh yes, it's the Schenck and Scherck Agency owned by Dave Schenck and Ronnie Scherck. The top mechanics who are executing this ticklish operation are Ronald Riley, Gene Greenawalt, Ronnie Grover, and David Daugherty.

Well, here's something new. "Bring Your family to the Ritzest Ritz ever Ritzed". Our undisputed master chefs Ed Bradford and Bud Elliott supply food from their own chain of grocery stores. The Associate Chief Chefresses are Barbara Auer, Elnora Avers, Carolee Alfano, and Marlene Blackport. It is said they flip a mean pancake.

And now we hear from the music world. Let's see, "Jon Robinson and his Five Fine Fellows" have recently been voted the most popular dance band in the country. This is probably due to the fact that they are the only band that dances. The band's singer is also a top name today, Miss Cheryl Brumbaugh. Their publicity manager, Miss Patsy Rupholdt, has recently been voted "The Publicity Manager With The Most—".

Now here's a note, "The Frey, Fry, and Frye Law Office," handled by Virginia, John, and Paul has recently won a case for its Client Miss Joyce Bauer, a well known art expert. She is thinking of buying the Brooklyn Bridge. Her consultants in this matter are famed realtors, the Misses Betty Bickel, Virginia Bixler, Julia Ganger, and the former Geraldine Christner and Martha Haney whose marriages take up a great deal of their time, but career women will be career women.

And now, news of the home front. One of our well known young housewives, the former Miss Sandra Gee now Mrs. Maury McCally, is spending her spare time as a Young Marriage Consultant and due to the fact that there is a booming business, she has hired the Misses Anna Dills, Rosemary Brown, and Donna Whitmer to assist her. They have come to the horrifying conclusion that there are very few single men or women left. This might prove to be interesting.

Here's a sports note. "We have it via the grapevine that the three race track tycoons, James Knisley, John Simmons, and Darl Stump have recently purchased a new horse. This is good news as they had a bit of hard luck with their last one. It seems that he started with the rest but on the second lap he stepped out for a coke and they haven't seen him since.

The Misses Doris Boyer, Eleanor Whorton, Phyllis Goetz, and Esther Warstler have recently opened a new antique shop. Their favorite article is a Louis XVI chair. Its reason for being outstanding is the fact that Louis is still in it!

A lovely, new children's home has come into view owned by the Misses Berneice Smeltzer, Loretta Burkey, Ferdinande Kaiser and Helen Pippenger. They have recently employed Miss Jane Rinker who is to have full charge of the 4,568 children. Of course, she will have assistance from Charles Gorham whose 4000 acre farm is nearby and who supplies all the food.

Well, I've simply exhausted this magazine and I think I have found what I wanted, one or two names of my old classmates.

—Sue Farrell

the choice is ours

The years now total ten and three
Since first our quest began
In search of knowledge and right,
And of our future's plan.

The road thus far has held for us
The roughness and the bend,
And often on our way we've paused
To help a stumbling friend.

The forks in this our road of Life
We've faced and gone our way
The signs along the road have led
To where we stand today.

And now we face another fork
With many roads in sight.
We pray that we, with help from God
Will choose the way that's right.

—Sarah Newell

class song

To the tune of "The Halls of Ivy"

To the halls of Goshen High School,
To our friends we know so well,
The class of nineteen-fifty-three
Will bid a fond farewell.

We have tried to give our utmost
In the four years of our past,
To leave us with our memories
As long as life shall last.

One day a hush will fall,
The footsteps of us all
Will echo down the hall and disappear.

But as we sadly start
Our journeys far apart,
A part of every heart will linger here

In the halls of Goshen High School
Where we've lived and learned to know,
That through the years we'll see you
In the sweet after-glow.

—Wetzel-Brinklow

thank you

We, the staff of the 1933 CRIMSON, wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to:

Miss Eda Margaret Barnes, our sponsor, without whose guidance, the Crimson could never be produced.

Dick Leavitt, our capable business manager.

Barbara Weaver and Sarah Newell, assistant editors who did much in planning the book.

Mary Sue Speicher and Peg Stouder, who typed copy for hours in order that we might meet our deadline.

Sally Risser, our high salesman and who with Sue Farrell wrote and produced the campaign skit.

Mr. Donald Snyder, Mr. Phillip Yoder, and Mr. Merle Shanklin for their excellent photography.

Mr. Starr, without whose cooperation the Crimson could not have been a success.

The Indianapolis Engraving Co. for their expert work and advice.

The S. K. Smith Co. for their attractive covers.

The E. V. Publishing Co. for the finished book.
